JULY 2013 EVENTS

Tuesday, 7/2

6:15 - 8:00 pm

Love Field (1992) - A White housewife in Dallas identifies so much with her idol, Jacqueline Kennedy, that when JFK is killed, she takes a bus to the funeral. While traveling, she meets a young Black girl and her father, and senses that something is amiss. Her meddling starts a chain reaction that has them all on the run from the police — and on the road to a deep friendship.

8:00 - 9:45 pm

Far from Heaven (2002) – After a suburban White housewife in 1950s Connecticut finds her husband with another man, she must deal not only with his infidelity, but also mounting racial tensions, as she copes with her emotional turmoil by developing an unlikely friendship with her gardener, who is Black.
